

The zodiac of summer style

As the stars align in the sky, the horoscope foresees some serious sartorial updates coming your way. One thing is true: the planets know what you're wearing this summer.

Gemini

May 21 – June 20

Summer, as we know, is all about the craft that Gemini basically invented – accessorising. When Uranus shows up in your twelfth house, your wardrobe will undergo a serious spiritual awakening. With warm-weather outfits underpinned by statement shoes, bags, sunglasses and headscarves, prepare to deep-dive into your fashionable subconscious and start layering accessories like never before. This season, fashion is the new meditation.

Scorpio

October 23 – November 21

As a Scorpio, you tend to nurture your innate femininity by keeping a tough exterior (i.e. you're familiar with leather pants). But since you're having expansive Jupiter watching over you this summer – take the chance and dig into your feminine core. By embracing a colourful, maximalist wardrobe you'll let your inner goddess blossom. Soon, (according to this summer's Leo lunar eclipse) uncovering your fondness for femininity will attune you with fellow Scorpio, the cool, gardening-obsessed princess Grace Kelly. By the end of September, you may even have a flower named after you, just like she did.

Sagittarius

November 22 – December 21

Being the go-getter sign for whom there is no such thing as "too much", you're always tuned into the latest fashion trends. But this summer does present some calmness into your hectic life. Zen master Jupiter wants you to explore your spiritual side and dial down on all the drama. Style-wise that means clothes that keep you earthbound. Go for lightweight pieces in organic cotton and a natural palette. The planet we're standing on is just as important as those playing mind games with us up there, after all.

Capricorn

December 22 – January 19

Saturn, your ruling planet, is the cute one with its prominent ring system making it totally unique. This summer, with four impending eclipses, you might want to take your polished wardrobe to the next level. Get inspired by Saturn's yellow hue and add some sunny saffron shades to your ensembles. If it feels too out of the box, fear not, as your eleventh house of technology is here to guide you. Next thing, you'll be planning an excursion to Silicon Valley to launch an app version of Cher's outfit-composer machine in iconic fashion flick Clueless. Outfit doubt, no more.

Aquarius

January 20 – February 18

Aquarius, you're the head-turner, the one who loves to experiment and try unusual looks. This summer you're having a downright party in the sky, with Jupiter, Uranus and Saturn all influencing the playlist. Style-wise this means your inner flower child will blossom. Maximalist floral-print styles will go perfectly with your new free-spirited attitude. Let the words of famous Aquarian Virginia Woolf, "I am rooted, but I flow" guide you into a career in the realm of spiritual healing which goes perfectly with your new age vibe.

Cancer

June 21 – July 22

Cancer, you daydreamer. Your sign may be represented by a crab, but don't let that hinder you from breaking out of your sartorial shell. You're no stranger to dressing in a refined and elegant manner, but with summer a wave of change arrives. According to the stars you will channel a laid-back style, perfect for an impending trip to California. While in L.A. you'll slip into floaty summer dresses, drape yourself in florals, steer into the sunset and embrace a sunny, carefree lifestyle.

Leo

July 23 – August 22

Wow, Leo. As your sign has one lunar eclipse here and one solar eclipse there, it's time to pursue your wildest wardrobe dreams. Since your style idol is already '70s David Bowie – bold, creative and totally out there – brace yourself for a summer of fashion 2.0. Street style photographers will be chasing you down the road, and the biggest influencer agency will sign you up even though you don't have an Instagram account... yet. Promise to get us in at those wild summer parties, please.

Virgo

August 23 – September 22

Virgo, you always pay attention to detail and aspire to achieve outfit perfection, but during the summer of 2018 four eclipses present four opportunities to try to let go. Inspired by the heightened awareness of nature that summer serves, flowers and wilderness are set to become your obsession. Feeling at ease in your new look, you'll embark on a nomadic journey where you meet a guru who will give you a new name. This summer you will be called: "Psyche Delia". Embrace it.

Libra

September 23 – October 22

Libra, this is your time to enjoy balance. As Jupiter moves into Scorpio, your stabilising second house becomes even more stable. Your love for fashion and your particular, elegant style has earned you an enviable closet, and this summer you'll enhance it through a classic, boho-chic mood. Just a warning: your rooted and refined style could get too ascetic, and you'll find yourself wearing togas and walking around barefoot. As lovely as that sounds, it may create some problems during your next city vacation.

Pisces

February 19 – March 20

Pisces, you are the sign most devoted to astrology, which is fantastic as it means you'll actually be reading this. Good news – your summer is going to be glorious. As Saturn exits your tenth house, Jupiter is flying free in your ninth which means optimistic energy galore. Your wardrobe of sublime summer dresses will grow, probably due to your new-found penchant for collecting passport stamps on trips to warmer climes. Being 'the mermaid of the zodiac' you are happiest lounging on a yacht, sailing all five of the world's oceans – so slick back your hair, put on an effortless dress and get ready for summer.

Aries

March 21 – April 19

Aries, you're used to being the trailblazer of the bunch so here is some excellent news for you: this is the perfect summer to turn up the volume in your closet. Whatever you wear, make sure it puts you in the spotlight. With Jupiter whirling in your eighth house, you'll be combining your outfits like never before. Here is some advice: you do you. A stampede of animal prints from head to toe? Why not, go for it, you're the leader of the zodiac after all.

Taurus

April 20 – May 20

Brace yourself Taurus as Uranus enters your sign at the time of a new moon. Be prepared to revamp your usually sophisticated and classic taste in clothes: adding a hippie touch to your style will make you sparkle all summer. Home of bohemian glamour, a holiday in Ibiza may be on the horizon. But you won't be attracted by the hedonistic pool parties, instead you'll be practising yoga on the beach by day and evoking your inner boho darling through printed headscarves and wrap skirts come sunset.
